

ПРИКЛАД ПОТОЧНОЇ РОБОТИ

The oral test (30 mins) is a face-to-face test which consists of two different assignments.

- Presentation task:
Participants prepare a short class within their teaching context, from which they can draw inspiration.
- Argumentation task:
Participants are asked to discuss their views on a general issue to be chosen from two available topics.

Participants are given 15 minutes to prepare for the oral test. They are not allowed to use dictionaries, websites or any other aids, but they do receive pen and paper to make notes that can be used during the presentation. The test itself takes approximately 15 minutes and is recorded to allow assessment by an additional rater if necessary.

Assessment of the oral test is based on the following evaluation criteria:

- Vocabulary (range and accuracy)
- Grammar (range and accuracy)
- Fluency
- Pronunciation
- Coherence and cohesion
