

TEST 1.

1. Native words are the words proper to only one language
 a) true;
 b) false.
2. Native words are more frequent in speech
 a) in English;
 b) in Ukrainian;
 c) in both languages;
 d) in neither of the languages.
3. Native words in English and Ukrainian comprise
 a) one common element;
 b) no common elements;
 c) several common elements;
 d) all common elements.
4. The source of borrowing is more important than the origin of borrowing
 a) true;
 b) false.
5. Scandinavian is one of the main sources of borrowings into English
 a) true;
 b) false.
6. German is one of the main sources of borrowings into English
 a) true;
 b) false;
7. French is one of the main sources of borrowings into Ukrainian
 a) true;
 b) false.
8. German is one of the main sources of borrowings into Ukrainian
 a) true;
 b) false.
9. The word street is of
 a) classical origin;
 b) French origin;
 c) Scandinavian origin;
 d) native origin.
10. The word husband is of
 a) classical origin;
 b) French origin;
 c) Scandinavian origin;
 d) native origin.
11. The word mail is of
 a) German origin;
 b) French origin;

- c) Scandinavian origin;
 d) native origin.

12. The word вишня is of

- a) native origin;
 b) Polish origin;
 c) German origin;
 d) Greek origin.

13. The word місто is of

- a) native origin;
 b) Polish origin;
 c) German origin;
 d) Greek origin.

14. The word меч is of

- a) native origin;
 b) Polish origin;
 c) German origin;
 d) Greek origin.

15. The word cheese is partly assimilated

- a) true;
 b) false;

16. The word machine is partly assimilated

- a) true;
 b) false.

17. The word завод is partly assimilated

- a) true;
 b) false.

18. The word mem-a-mem is partly assimilated

- a) true;
 b) false.

19. Calquing/ translation loans result from morpheme for morpheme translation

- a) true;
 b) false.

20. The word клуб is the result of transliteration

- a) true;
 b) false.