

Підсумковий контроль

Sight translation

Crime in the social and legal framework is the set of facts or assumptions (causes, consequences and objectives) that are part of a case in which they were committed acts punishable under criminal law, and the application of which depends on the agent of a sentence or security measure criminal. Usually includes a felony violation of a criminal rule or act against law, in particular at the expense of people or moral. A crime may be illegal (as is the cause of evil or injury) or perfectly legal (when the act done is not a necessary consequence of the conduct of the agent but determined by others). Illegal and punishable crime is the violation of any rule of administrative, fiscal or criminal liability on the part of agents of the state or practice of any wrongdoing and notoriously harmful to self or against third parties, provided for in criminal law, since they practiced with guilt (the first act that causes injury criminal actions or omissions to produce adequate evidence also illegal). Legal and not punishable crime are all acts in self-defense or otherwise determined by the illegal or criminal conduct of others that happened in the first place (or omission adequate to protect the staff member who is a victim of illegal crime).

Consecutive interpreting

Right to Work: Refugees from Ukraine have the right to work in the Netherlands. Once your residence permit is approved, you can apply for jobs in various sectors, although knowledge of Dutch or English may be required depending on the field.

Education for Children: Refugee children are entitled to attend school in the Netherlands. The Dutch education system provides various programs for refugee children to help them integrate and learn Dutch.

Vocational Training: Adults can access programs to gain new skills or certifications that will help them enter the workforce.

Financial Support

Refugees are entitled to financial assistance to cover basic living expenses, including food, clothing, and accommodation. If you are placed in a reception center, the cost of living is mostly covered.

Once you are more established, you can access welfare benefits if necessary. The level of support depends on your circumstances.