

Choose the best option on the following:

- 1) The current ecolinguistic paradigm rests on the principle of:
 - a) antropocentrism;
 - b) mutual influence among the human, natural and social media;
 - c) linguocentrism;
 - d) mutual influence between the nature and language.

- 2) Which paradigm is not relevant for linguistics?
 - a) comparative philology;
 - b) structuralism;
 - c) positivism;
 - d) functionalism.

- 3) The language as the result of mutual influencing the human cognition and social/natural contexts is considered by
 - a) functional paradigm in linguistics;
 - b) structural paradigm in linguistics;
 - c) anthropocentric paradigm in linguistics;
 - d) ecolinguistic paradigm.

- 4) According M. Buber's theory, the interest to the human
 - a) arises when arts are flourishing;
 - b) arises when sciences are flourishing;
 - c) arises during the period of discomfort;
 - d) arises during the period of comfort;

- 5) The cognitive theory does not rest on the following principle:
 - a) cognition cannot be researched experimentally;
 - b) the human possesses an ability to perceive the world, which is called cognition;
 - c) cognition is subject to certain regularities;
 - d) cognition may be researched by its products, one of which is language.